The Birth of יושע the Messiah

Insight Based on The Star that Astonished the World by Ernest L. Martin

According to 2 Corinthians 12:2 there are three heavens. Tradition says the first is the air where the birds fly, the second is where the sun, moon and stars are found, and the third is where Elohim dwells. Shemesh is Hebrew for sun and Yerach is Hebrew for moon. According to Genesis 1:14, Elohim created Shemesh, Yerach and the stars for signs. In Revelation 12:1-2, John describes a great sign with Shemesh, Yerach and the stars in the second heaven.

Revelation 12:1-2

> And a great sign was seen in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars, and she being with child screamed, travailing in birth and agonized to be delivered.

New Moon at Jerusalem at the Moment of Sunset

This graphic is from torahcalendar.com, under the menu item: Determining the Hebrew Month selected to display the New Moon Day for Month 7 in 3 B.C.E. The diagram shows the horizon at the moment of sunset at Jerusalem. The disc of the sun is shown just below the western horizon. Notice the position of the moon and the sun in relation to the constellation Bethulah or Virgo (the Virgin).
The prophet Isaiah made a prophetic allusion to this great sign in Isaiah 7:14 many years before it was seen, יהוה Himself will give you a sign.” This great sign, which was seen in heaven over 700 years later, was described by John as, “A woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet.”

Notice the positions of Shemesh and Yerach in relation to the constellation Bethulah or Virgo on Yom Teruah on Day 1 / Month 7 on the Creation Calendar. On this very day Shemesh (the sun) is clothing the woman mid body, and Yerach (the moon) is under her feet. On the day before, Yerach was not under the woman’s feet and it was not visible. On the day after, Yerach had moved 12 degrees east, away from under the woman’s feet and into the constellation Libra.

The prophecy in Revelation 12:2 states that the woman “being with child, screamed, travailing in birth and agonized to be delivered.” This refers to the actual moment when יהושע Messiah was born. Messiah was born between sunset and moonset on New Moon 7 on the Creation Calendar, between 5:53 and 6:35 P.M. on September 11, 3 B.C.E. on the proleptic Julian Calendar.

The best time to sight the crescent of Yerach (the moon) on that day was around 6:12 P.M. ± 10 minutes], which is likely the moment the Messiah was born. This is possible to determine as 6:12 P.M. was also the moment that the brightest star in Bethulah or Virgo touched the horizon, or “alighted to the earth.” The name of this star is Tsemech in Hebrew, or Al Zimach in Arabic, and it was the subject of prophecy by Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Zechariah. Tsemech was written about by E. W. Bullinger.

E. W. Bullinger The brightest star in Virgo has an ancient name handed down to us in all the star maps, in which the Hebrew word (תְּםֵך) Tsemech is preserved. It is called in Arabic Al Zimach, which means the branch. This star is in the ear of corn which she holds in her left hand. Hence the star has a modern Latin name, which has almost superseded the ancient one, Spica, which means, an ear of corn. But this hides the great truth revealed by its name Al Zimach. It foretold the coming of Him who should bear this name. The same divine inspiration has, in the written Word, four times connected it with Him. There are twenty Hebrew words translated “Branch,” but only one of them (Tsemech) is used exclusively of the Messiah and this word only four times. E. W. Bullinger, The Witness of the Stars, Kregel Publications, 2000, pp. 31-32. [Reprint of the 1893 Edition]

The Latin name Spica means an ear of corn – a kernel of wheat. This is significant, for Joseph Seiss noticed that in John 12:23-26, יהושע Messiah compared Himself to a kernel of wheat falling to the earth.

John 12:23-26 23 And responded to them, “The hour is come that the Son of Man should be magnified. 24 Truly, truly I say to you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains a single seed. But if it dies, it bears fruit. 25 He that loves his life will lose it, but he who hates his life in this world will preserve it for the Age of Life. 26 If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. And where I am, there also My servant will be. The Father will honor anyone who serves Me.” Joseph A. Seiss, The Gospel in the Stars, Kregel Publications, 1999, p. 28. [Reprint of the 1882 Edition]

The heavenly sign shows a kernel of wheat – Spica – coming to the earth when it touched the horizon on Day 1 / Month 7 on Yom Teruah in 3 B.C.E. יהושע Messiah was that kernel of wheat who was sent from heaven to earth at around 6:12 P.M. on the Day of Trumpets. The death of יהושע Messiah at Passover was destined to bear much fruit by bringing the Age of Life to all who believe and obey Him. The Hebrew word for the Branch – Tsemech (תְּםֵך) – was referred to by the prophets of ישראל centuries before the Messiah was born. In a Messianic prophecy, the prophet Isaiah said that the Branch would be beautiful to the survivors in ישראל.
Isaiah 4:1-6  1 And seven women shall grasp one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: Only let us be called by your name to remove our reproach.”
2 In that day the Branch (צמח) of יְהוָה will be beautiful and resplendent, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and splendor of the survivors in Israel. 3 And it shall come to pass that those who are left in Zion, who remain in Jerusalem, will be called set-apart, all who are written among the living in Jerusalem.
4 יְהוָה will wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion. He will cleanse the bloodstains from Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of fire. 5 Then יְהוָה will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a flaming fire by night – 6 a splendid canopy will cover everyone. It will be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding place from the storm and rain.

The prophet Jeremiah foretold that the Branch was a Son of David who would reign wisely as KING, and that His name would be YHWH Our Righteousness.

Jeremiah 23:5-6  5 “Behold, the days are coming,” says יְהוָה, “When I will raise up to David a righteous Branch (צמח), a KING who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land. 6 In His days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. This is the name by which He will be called: YHWH Our Righteousness.”

The prophet Zechariah foretold that the Branch was a SERVANT who would build the Temple of יְהוָה. He was a MAN clothed in majesty, a PRIEST on His throne and even a HIGH PRIEST symbolized by Yeshua I.

Zechariah 3:7-8  7 “This is what יְהוָה of Hosts says: ‘If you will walk in My ways and keep My requirements, then you will govern My house and have charge of My courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here. 8 Hear Oh HIGH PRIEST Yeshua I and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring My SERVANT, the Branch (צמח).’”

Zechariah 6:12-13  12 And speak to him saying, this is what יְהוָה of Hosts says: ‘Here is the MAN whose name is the Branch (צמח), and He will branch out from His place and build the Temple of יְהוָה. 13 And He will build the Temple of יְהוָה, and He will be clothed with majesty and will sit and rule on His throne. And He will be a PRIEST on His throne. And there will be prosperity between the two.”

Zechariah 9:9-10  9 Rejoice greatly, Oh Daughter of Zion! Shout, Oh Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your KING comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. 10 I will take away the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth.

In studying the prophets, several things can be learned about the identity of the Branch. The Branch is a KING, a SERVANT, a MAN, a PRIEST – even a HIGH PRIEST. His name is יְהוָה Our Righteousness which indicates that the Branch is יְהוָה Himself. These exact same themes about Yeshua Messiah were developed in the Messianic Scriptures. He is presented as the KING in Matthew, as the SERVANT in Mark, as the MAN in Luke, as a PRIEST and יְהוָה Himself in John, and as a HIGH PRIEST in Hebrews. The prophet Zechariah even prophesied to a high priest named יהושע, or Yeshua I son of Jehozadak, that he was symbolic of things to come. The name of the high priest in Zechariah’s prophecy was to be the very name of the Messiah.
As Spica or the Branch came from heaven to earth when it touched the horizon at 6:12 P.M. on Day 1 / Month 7 on Yom Teruah on the Creation Calendar (September 11, 3 B.C.E.), so did the Branch Messiah come to the earth to fulfill His destiny. In Hebraic thought, as Yerach (the moon) reflects the light of Shemesh (the sun), so Israel is to reflect the light of the Creator to the nations. The Messiah of Israel was born at 6:12 P.M. when the first visible crescent of Yerach was most clearly reflecting the light of Shemesh. He is the Light of the World as He said in John 8:12 and the Great Light spoken of in Isaiah 9:2.

The constellation Bethulah or Virgo represents the Hebrew tribe of Zebulun which means Habitation. This is significant, as יושע Messiah’s habitation was in Capernaum in the land of Zebulun, and Zebulun represents the Hebrew constellation in which the sign of His birth appeared. The prophet Isaiah made a prophetic allusion to the fact that the Messiah would be seen in the land of Zebulun, a prophecy which Matthew understood.

Isaiah 9:1-2 1 Although at first the land of Zebulun was lightly afflicted, and afterward Naphtali was grievously afflicted by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan in Galilee of the nations, 2 the people who were walking in darkness have seen a Great Light, those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a Light dawned.

Matthew 4:12-17 12 And יושע, having heard that John was cast into prison, departed to Galilee, 13 and having left Nazareth, He came and dwelt at Capernaum which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan in Galilee of the nations, 16 the people who were walking in darkness have seen a Great Light, those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a Light dawned.” 17 From that time יושע began to proclaim and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

However the heavens declare even more than this. For at the very moment the Branch was coming to the earth, and Yerach was reflecting the light of Shemesh above the horizon, the planet Tzedeq (Jupiter) was very close in conjunction with the brightest star of the constellation Leo which was below the horizon. Tzedeq is the same word that appears in Melchi-zedek which means “King of Righteousness” and refers to the Messiah.

Tzedeq or Jupiter is the planet of the Messiah. Leo is the constellation of Judah from which the Lion of Judah – the Messiah – comes. The brightest star in Leo is Regulus which is the King star. Tzedeq near Regulus in Leo signaled the birth of Messiah the King – the Lion of Judah. Tzedeq near Regulus in Leo was clearly seen above the horizon in the morning for several days after the Messiah was born. With the dawning of the day, the heavens clearly bore witness to the birth of the Messiah. This sign, which was seen in the morning at the dawning of day, was the subject of prophecy:

Psalm 65:8 Those living far away fear your wonders; where morning dawns and evening fades you call forth songs of joy.

Psalm 112:4 Even in darkness, light dawns for the upright, for the gracious, compassionate and righteous.

2 Peter 1:19 And we have the prophetic word made more sure. You will do well to pay attention to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, till the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts.
The Messiah was not born at the Festival of Sukkot as this was a full 2 weeks after the sign given in Revelation 12:2 which refers to the actual moment of His birth. This is confirmed in the Messianic Scriptures in Luke 2:3 where it states that everyone in Judea went to their own city to enroll for a census. Yet at Sukkot, all Israelite males were to appear before יהוה in Jerusalem according to Exodus 23:14-17. The Romans certainly would not have scheduled a census in Judea at the time of Sukkot. Even if they would have, it is certain that every Israelite male in Judea not born in Jerusalem would not have broken the commands of יהוה to appease the Romans.

According to Numbers 29:1, Day 1 / Month 7 is called Yom Teruah or the Day of Trumpets. It has traditionally been understood that on this day a ram’s horn or shofar is blown to awaken the people and alert them of coming judgment. Day 1 / Month 7 on Yom Teruah is New Year’s Day or Rosh Hashanah the “head of the year” for 49 out of 50 Civil Years on the Creation Calendar. The only exception is in a Jubilee Year when Day 10 / Month 7 on Yom Kippur is New Year’s Day or Rosh Hashanah the “head of the year.” Yom Teruah on Day 1 / Month 7 has many prophetic themes associated with it.

In Temple times, trumpets were blown every month when the first visible crescent was sighted in Israel according to Numbers 10:10. Instructions are given in Psalm 81:3 to blow a shofar whenever the first visible crescent moon is sighted. In Leviticus 23:24 and Numbers 29:1 trumpets are specifically instructed to be blown on Yom Teruah on New Moon 7.

Yom Teruah has been called Ha’Melech which literally translates as “The King.” Ha’Melech is in fact the birthday of יהושע Messiah who is the Son of David, King of Judah and Israel. In Matthew 2:2, the magi were searching for the one born “King of the Judeans.” According to Matthew 2:9-11, the magi found יהושע as a young Child at His house. At this time the magi declared that יהושע was the King of the Judeans”, and this likely occurred on Ha’Melech in 2 B.C.E., one year to the day after He was born.

Joseph son of Jacob was released from prison on Yom Teruah in 1759 B.C.E. when he was 30 years old, and then became a savior of the world in a time of famine. This was a pattern for יהושע son of Joseph who officially began His ministry on Yom Teruah when He was 30 years old, and then became the Savior of the world.

The Scriptures in Leviticus 23:24 refers to Day 1 / Month 7 as Zikkaron Teruah or “A Remembrance of the Blowing of Trumpets.” יהושע Messiah was born at the moment that Israel is commanded to remember to blow trumpets. His arrival on earth was heralded with trumpets! The sounding of trumpets also links the moment of His birth with the coronation theme in Ha’Melech. The incredible timing of the birth of יהושע Messiah reflects His providence as the King of Kings and the Master of the Universe.

His birth came about when He was delivered, which is the theme of another name for this day, the “Day of the Delivery of the World.” In Hebraic thought, Yom Teruah / Rosh Hashanah – the day when יהושע Messiah was born – is reminiscent of the voice of a woman in labor and announces the birth of a new world.

Adin Steinsaltz / Josy Eisenberg  All births imply delivery. This also happens at Rosh Hashanah, which is deservedly called the “day of the delivery of the world.” The sound of the shofar is reminiscent of the voice of a woman in labor. This is the cry that announces the birth of a new world. Adin Steinsaltz & Josy Eisenberg, The Seven Lights on the Major Jewish Festivals, Jason Aronson Inc., 2000, pp. 46-47.
Yom Teruah is also called Yom Hadin or the “Day of Judgment.” According to Judean tradition, every inhabitant of the world passes before the Creator for judgment on this day as sheep before a Shepherd. In Hebraic thought, the gates are opened for the righteous to enter on Yom Hadin. They remain open for 10 days of awe leading to Yom Kippur when the gates are finally closed. It has been taught that Elohim remembers to open the books in heaven on Yom Hadin when assessing what the year ahead will hold.

Another name for this day is Yom Hakeseh or the “Hidden Day.” It has been taught that the plans of יהוה concerning the final Day of Judgment are hidden from Satan the adversary. However, this day may be known in the demonic realm, as Matthew 8:29 records two persons possessed with devils saying, “Have you come here to torment us before the appointed time?”

Yom Teruah has also been a “Hidden Day” because in ancient Israel it was very difficult for Israel’s leaders to consistently determine the exact day on which Yom Teruah, or any New Moon for that matter, began. For this reason, this day was somewhat shrouded in mystery or a “Hidden Day.” Historically, Israel celebrated Yom Teruah on two days – on both the day after Day 29 / Month 6 and the day following that – to ensure they were observing Yom Teruah.

“The woman” in the prophecy of Revelation 12:1-2 is represented by the constellation Bethulah or Virgo and refers to two things. It first refers metaphorically to the “virgin daughter of Israel” – the children of Elohim, the elect of Israel, the assembly of the righteous, the redeemed, the Israel of Elohim. The Scriptures refer to Israel as a virgin daughter in 2 Kings 19:21, Isaiah 37:22, Jeremiah 14:17, 18:13, 31:4, 31:21, Lamentations 2:13 and Amos 5:2.

The “virgin daughter of Israel” prophetically refers to those who “obey the commandments of Elohim, and remain faithful to יהושע” according to the prophecy of Revelation 14:12. The Messiah was to come from the tribe of Judah which is one of the twelve tribes of Israel. These twelve tribes are symbolically represented by the crown of twelve stars upon the woman’s head.

“The woman” secondly refers more specifically to the mother of the Messiah whose name was Miriam. She was a virgin who came from the virgin daughter of Israel. The birth of יהושע Messiah was foretold by the prophet Isaiah who spoke of a coming sign.

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore יהוה Himself is giving you a sign: Behold, the virgin is conceiving and is bringing forth a Son, and has called His name Immanuel.

This prophesied sign was seen over 700 years later when יהושע Messiah was born on Yom Teruah in 3 B.C.E.

Isaiah 9:6-7 6 For a Child is born to us, a Son is given to us, and the government will be on His shoulders. And His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty El, Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. 7 Of the increase of His government and of peace there is no end, on the throne of David, and over His kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from now to eternity [World to Come]. The zeal of יהוה of Hosts accomplishes this.

Matthew’s account of the Messiah’s birth makes a reference to Isaiah’s prophecy.

Matthew 1:18-25 18 This is how the birth of יהושע the Messiah came about: His mother Miriam was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before their coming together, she was found to have conceived through the Set Apart Spirit, 19 and Joseph her husband being righteous, and not wanting to expose her to public disgrace, determined to divorce her quietly. 20 But after considering this, a messenger of יהוה appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to receive Miriam as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Set Apart Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a Son, and you are to give Him the name יהושע, for He will save His people from their sins.” 22 All this took place to fulfill what יהוה had said through the prophet: 23 “Behold, the virgin is conceiving, and is bringing forth a Son, and has called His name Immanuel,” which is interpreted, “El with us.” 24 When Joseph woke up, he did what the messenger of יהוה had commanded him and received Miriam as his wife. 25 But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a Son. And he gave Him the name יהושע.

Luke 2:6-7  6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be delivered, 7 and she gave birth to her firstborn, a Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and placed Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

For those who are watching, who are filled with the Spirit of יהוה, the Scriptures give all that is needed to discern the year, month, day, hour and moment of the Messiah’s birth, as well as the precise time of His return. That is why the Master of the Universe instructed all of those who love Him and keep His commandments to watch. The elect of Elohim should now be watching more than ever before. This is an honorable task as יהושע Himself said that those servants who are found watching when He comes are blessed.

Luke 12:35-38  35 “Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning; 36 and you yourselves be like men who wait for their Master, when He will return for the wedding, that when He comes and knocks you may open to Him immediately. 37 Blessed are those servants whom the Master, when He comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that He will gird Himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. 38 And if He should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.”

יהושע Messiah instructed all of those who love Him and keep His commandments to watch for the coming of the Son of Man. In the Olivet Discourse, Peter, James, John and Andrew had several questions for יהושע which they asked Him on Day 11 / Month 1 in 34 C.E. which was only 3 days before He was crucified. It was on this day that the disciples wanted to know: 1) when the Second Temple would be destroyed, 2) what would be the sign of this coming judgment, and 3) what would be the sign of the end of the Age of the Messiah.

Matthew 24:3  Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “(1) Tell us, when will these things be? (2) And what will be the sign of Your coming, (3) and of the end of the Age of the Messiah?”

יהושע responded to the first two questions in Matthew 24:4-35 and Mark 13:5-31. The prophecies concerning the great tribulation and the abomination of desolation and the destruction of the Second Temple were fulfilled in 70 C.E. For clearly prophesied that the generation that was alive in 34 C.E. would not pass away until all the things just spoken of had taken place.

Matthew 24:34  Assuredly, I say to you, this generation [in 34 C.E.] will by no means pass away till all these things [spoken of in Matthew 24:4-33] take place.

Mark 13:30  Assuredly, I say to you, this generation [in 34 C.E.] will by no means pass away till all these things [spoken of in Mark 13:5-29] take place.

But the words מְשַׁמְחָה spoke in Matthew 24:36-25:46 and Mark 13:32-36 are still future as the Son of Man has not yet gathered all the nations before Him in judgment, and according to Revelation 20:4-6, the blessed still have not inherited the Millennial Kingdom and begun to rule and reign with the Messiah for 1000 years.

To rightly divide the word of truth is to understand that the words in Matthew 24:4-35 and Mark 13:5-31 were fulfilled at the beginning of the Age of the Messiah, and we must believe with perfect faith that the words of יְהוָה spoke in Matthew 24:36-25:46 and Mark 13:32-36 will be fulfilled at the end of the Age of the Messiah.

The Messiah’s response in Matthew 24:36-25:46 and Mark 13:32-36 was to the third question regarding the end of the Age of the Messiah, and He gave specific signs of the end of the Age of the Messiah. The first sign gave of the end of the Age of the Messiah is that it would be as in the days of Noah. In Noah’s day it was the unrighteous who did not know when the judgment was coming.

Luke 17:26-27 26 “And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: 27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.”

Matthew 24:36-39 36 “Concerning the day and hour [of the end of the Age of the Messiah] no one intuitively knows, not even the messengers in heaven, but only the Father. 37 As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For they were in the days before the flood, eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; 39 and they knew not until the flood came and took them all away. So shall the coming of the Son of Man be.”

However, it is clearly evident that righteous Noah knew seven days in advance that judgment was coming.

Genesis 7:1-4 1 Then יְהוָה said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation. 2 You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female; 3 also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth. 4 For after another seven days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made.”

Noah knew on Day 10 / Month 2 that the flood would occur on Day 17 / Month 2.

Genesis 7:10-11 10 And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth. 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

And just as righteous Noah was given the specific date for the judgment by water before it came to pass, so too will the righteous be given the specific date for the judgment by fire before it comes to pass. It is not intuitive for a person to know the day and the hour the Age of the Messiah will end, or to know the day and the hour in Jerusalem, Israel at any given time. However, it is now possible for anyone who has access to the internet to know the Hebrew Day and the Hebrew Hour in Jerusalem, Israel in real time by looking at the Determining the Hebrew Hour section of www.torahcalendar.com. <www.torahcalendar.com/HOUR.asp>
The second sign gave of the end of the Age of the Messiah is that it would be as in the days of Lot.

Luke 17:28-33  28 “ Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed. 31 In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back. 32 Remember Lot’s wife. 33 Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.”

Genesis 19:23-26  23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar. 24 Then rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from יהוה out of the heavens. 25 So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. 26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

And the Messiah instructed people not to look back as Lot’s wife did – for if you do it is certain you will never attain the Age of Life. And there is a third sign gave of the end of the Age of the Messiah.

Matthew 24:40-42  40 “Then two will be in the field, one is received and the other forsaken, 41 two grinding with a mill, one is received and the other forsaken. 42 Watch therefore, for you do not intuitively know what day your Master will come.”

Luke 17:34-36  34 “I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed: one is received and the other forsaken. 35 Two will be grinding together: one is received and the other forsaken. 36 Two will be in the field: one is received and the other forsaken.”

יהושע Messiah said that He went to prepare a place for us and that He would come and receive us to Himself.

John 14:1-7  1 “Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in Elohim, believe also in Me. 2 In My Father’s House are Great Rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know.” 5 Thomas said to Him, “Master, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?” 6 said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. 7 If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him.”

יהושע Messiah will receive those who obey the commandments of Elohim and remain faithful to Him.

John 3:36 “He who believes in the Son has the Age of Life; but he who does not obey the Son shall not see life, for the wrath of Elohim abides on him.”

Revelation 14:12 This calls for patient endurance by the set apart ones who obey the commandments of Elohim, and remain faithful to יהושע.

From the Messiah’s sayings in Matthew 24:40-42 and Luke 17:34-36, it seems possible to deduce that those who are going to be received by Elohim will be working on the day the Son of Man comes, and that this day will not be in the midst of a Sabbath or a High Sabbath. The fourth sign gave of the end of the Age of the Messiah concerns the appearance of a faithful and wise servant with food in due season.
Matthew 24:45-51  45 “Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Master made ruler over His household, to give them food in due season? 46 Blessed is that servant whom his Master, when He comes, will find so doing. 47 Assuredly, I say to you that He will make him ruler over all his goods. 48 But if that evil servant says in his heart, ‘My Master is delaying His coming,’ 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, 50 the Master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for Him and at an hour that he is not aware of, 51 and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Luke 12:39-44  39 “But resolve to know this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief would come, he would not have let his house be broken into. 40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you would not suppose. 41 Peter asked, ‘Master, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?’ 42 The Master answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom the Master puts in charge of His servants to give them food at the due season? 43 Blessed is that servant whom his Master finds doing so when He returns. 44 Of a truth I say to you, He will put him in charge of all His possessions.”

The faithful and wise servant with food in due season is the last sign דִּבְרֵי הָיָשָׁע gave regarding the coming of the Son of Man at the end of the Age of the Messiah, before He gave the Parable of the Ten Virgins. The Parable of the Ten Virgins is actually quite terrifying when one contemplates that it will come to pass.

Matthew 25:1-13  1 “Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the Bridegroom. 2 Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their torches and took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their torches. 5 But while the Bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. 6 And at midnight a cry was heard: ‘Behold, the Bridegroom is coming; go out to meet Him!’ 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our torches are going out.’ 9 But the wise answered, saying, ‘No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.’ 10 And while they went to buy, the Bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with Him to the wedding; and the door was shut. 11 Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ 12 But He answered and said, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, I DO NOT KNOW YOU.’ 13 Watch therefore, for you do not intuitively know the day nor the hour.”

The response that will be given to the five foolish virgins in Matthew 25:12 is similar to the response in Matthew 7:23 that will be given to those who practice lawlessness. This teaches us that the five foolish virgins are those who practice lawlessness and do not observe the basic moral code of the 10 Commandments.

Matthew 7:21-27  21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ 23 And then I will declare to them, ‘I NEVER KNEW YOU; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’ 24 Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: 25 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: 27 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall.”
In Matthew 7:21-23, יְהֹושֻעַ prophesied that many will cry to the “Lord”, “Adonai”, or “יהוה” without success. Many will not enter into the Age of Life because they practiced lawlessness by refusing to abstain from eating the unclean and detestable, by refusing to cease from sexual immorality, and by refusing to observe the Sabbaths and to cease from idolatry and pagan religious practices.

These three issues are addressed in the “Heart of the Law” in Leviticus 17-19 – the middle section of the middle book of the Torah. Moses taught on the sanctity of blood and the difference between the clean and unclean, the laws of sexual morality, and the admonition to observe Sabbath and to abstain from idolatry. These three issues were the minimum requirements of fellowship established by James, and the apostles and elders, all of whom deferred to Moses and to the will of the Father יהוה Elohim in heaven.

Acts 15:19-21 19 Therefore I [James] judge that we should not trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to Elohim, but that we write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols [idolatry], from sexual immorality, from things strangled, and from blood [from eating unclean and detestable things]. 21 For Moses has had throughout many generations those who preach him in every city, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.

Acts 15:23-29 23 They [the apostles and elders] sent this letter by them [Paul and Barnabas]: The apostles, the elders, and the brethren, To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Greetings. 24 Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, to whom we gave no such commandment – it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, men who have risked their lives for the name of our Master יהושע Messiah. 27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Set Apart Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: that you abstain from things offered to idols [idolatry], from blood, from things strangled [from eating unclean and detestable things], and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.

Acts 21:25 But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided that they keep themselves from things offered to idols [idolatry], from blood, from things strangled [from eating unclean and detestable things], and from sexual immorality.

James reasoned that if people who were turning toward the Creator agreed to this basic moral code, they could learn more about the faith every Sabbath when the five books of Moses were read in the synagogues. Paul, quoting Isaiah, advised everyone who was coming to faith from among the Gentiles to separate themselves to יהוה, and not to touch what is unclean in order to be received by Elohim.

2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1 14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what accord has Messiah with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement has the temple of Elohim with idols? For you are the temple of the living Elohim. As Elohim has said: “I will dwell in them [Exodus 25:8, 29:45] and walk among them. I will be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.” [Leviticus 26:12] Therefore, “Come out from among them and be separate,” says יהוה. “Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you.” [Isaiah 52:11, Revelation 18:4] 18 “I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says יהוה Almighty.” [2 Samuel 7:14, Jeremiah 31:9]

John has prophesied that anyone found not observing this basic moral code will not inherit the Age of Life.
Revelation 21:6-8

6 And He said to me, “It is done! I am the Aleph and the Taw [א,τ], the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.
7 He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his Elohim and he shall be My son.
8 But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

Revelation 22:12-15

12 “And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work.
13 I am the Aleph and the Taw [א,τ], the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last.”
14 Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city.
15 But outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

One fascinating aspect of the Parable of the Ten Virgins is that immediately before the Son of Man comes – all ten virgins including the five wise virgins are sleeping! Only hours before the Bridgroom comes, the five wise virgins will advise the five foolish virgins to go and buy oil for themselves. A righteous person would never tell anyone to go and buy on a Sabbath or a High Sabbath as it would be a sin. So the Parable of the Ten Virgins seems to indicate that the Son of Man will not come in the midst of a Sabbath.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins confirms that many who believe they are ready will not in fact be ready for the coming of the Son of Man. Many will be scrambling at the last moment assessing whether the things they have been taught their whole lives could actually be wrong. And as they are doing this, the judgment will suddenly happen and the door will be shut and they will not be received into the Age of Life.

Practicing lawlessness is the last thing anyone wants to be doing on the day of judgment. For on the day the Son of Man comes there will be many sincere people who adhered to a set of beliefs their whole lives who will not receive the salvation which they thought they already had because they refused to repent of their evil deeds when the opportunity presented itself. Elohim will not be pleased with them because of their refusal to cease from idolatry just as He was not pleased with those in the Exodus. Paul saw the writing on the wall for the religiously deluded in his generation and he gave them this advice.

1 Corinthians 10:1-11

1 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, all passed through the sea,
2 all were immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,
3 all ate the same spiritual food,
4 and all drank the same spiritual drink.
5 For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Messiah.
6 But with most of them Elohim was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.
7 Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted.
8 And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.” [Exodus 32:6]
9 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell;
10 nor let us tempt Messiah, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents;
11 nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
12 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages [Present Age, Age of Desolation, Age of Instruction, Age of the Messiah] have come.
יהושע Messiah has not changed since the Exodus, and He exhorts His elect to resolve to know that it is the wicked servant who will be unaware of the time of His return.

Matthew 24:43-51  43 “But resolve to know this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. 44 So you must also be ready, for at an hour when you do not expect, the Son of Man will come. 45 Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the Master has put over His household to give them food at the due season? 46 Blessed is that servant whose Master finds him doing so when He returns. 47 Truly I say to you, He will put him in charge of all His possessions. 48 But suppose that wicked servant says to himself, ’My Master is delaying His coming,’ 49 and shall begin to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. 50 The Master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking, and at an hour he is not aware of. 51 He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Luke 12:45-48  45 “But if that servant says in his heart, ’My Master is delaying His coming,’ and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidservants and to eat and drink and be drunk. 46 The Master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect, and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers. 47 That servant who knows his Master’s will and does not get ready, or does not do what his Master wants, will be beaten with many blows. 48 But the one who does not know, and does things deserving punishment, will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.”

It is the wicked servant who will not know the day and the hour of His Master’s return. It is the unbeliever who will not know the day and who will be unaware of the hour of the Master’s return. Paul affirmed that although the day of יהוה would come as a thief in the night to those living in darkness, it would NOT overtake the children of the light as a thief.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11  1 And concerning the times and seasons, brothers, you have no need of my writing to you, 2 for you know very well that the day of יהוה will come like a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, ‘Peace and Security,’ sudden destruction will come on them, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. 4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this day should overtake you like a thief. 5 You are all children of light and children of the day. We are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6 So then, let us not be like others who are asleep, but let us be alert and self-controlled. 7 For those sleeping, sleep at night, and those who are drunk, are drunk at night. 8 But since we belong to the day, let us watch, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. 9 For Elohim did not appoint us to wrath, but to receive salvation through our Master יהושע Messiah, 10 who died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him. 11 Therefore comfort one another and build each other up, just as you are doing.

It is apparent that all of the apostles understood that the day of יהוה would come as a thief in the night because Peter and John also refer to this motif in their prophecies.
2 Peter 3:10 But the day of יהוה will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.

Revelation 3:3 “Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.”

Revelation 16:15 “Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.”

John specifically says in Revelation 3:3 that the Messiah would come as a thief only to those who were not watching. He infers that a person who has received the truth and who is walking in obedience and who is watching will know the time of the Master’s return. That is why John says in Revelation 16:15 that the servant of Elohim who is watching is blessed.

The Scriptural theme of the Messiah coming like a thief must be considered in the historical context in which it was given. At the time John wrote Revelation in 64 C.E. there was a well known story circulating about the High Priest of Israel. One of the responsibilities of the High Priest of Israel was to ensure the Great Altar was operating successfully. After the evening sacrifice was offered, the High Priest would leave one of the priests in charge of the Great Altar.

The priest would watch the altar during the night to ensure that the fire on it remained burning. When the High Priest returned, he came just as a new day was beginning. It was said of him that he came like a thief as he approached the Great Altar. The first thing the High Priest would do was to ensure that the fire on the Great Altar was burning. If the fire was burning, it meant that the priest in charge of the Great Altar had done his job, and not fallen asleep during his shift.

However, if the priest watching the Great Altar had fallen asleep, the High Priest would come on him unexpectedly. This apparently once happened. The story circulating was that one High Priest, upon finding the fire on the altar unattended, took some of the hot coals in his fire pan, and when he found the sleeping priest, dumped the hot coals onto the garments of that priest. The priest woke up on fire and tore his clothes off in shame! He left the Temple naked and ashamed as he had not done his job in properly attending the Altar.

This understanding greatly enhances the interpretation of Revelation 16:15. The message is this: If a servant of Elohim is watching, then he will be ready. He will watch the High Priest come and will not wake up on fire in the resurrection of damnation at the Great White Throne Judgment at the end of the Age of Life at the beginning of The World to Come. This is why יושע Messiah, our great High Priest in heaven, specifically and repeatedly told His followers to watch!

The prophecies are clear, those who are set apart, those who keep the commands of Elohim and remain faithful to יהושע Messiah will be saved. This should motivate the elect to keep the commands of Elohim and remain faithful to יהושע Messiah.

Revelation 14:12 This calls for patient endurance by the set apart ones who obey the commandments of Elohim, and remain faithful to יהושע.

Peter preached that heaven must receive יהושע Messiah until the times of the restoration of all things – a phrase which refers to the seventh millennium and to Jubilee Year 120.
Acts 3:19-21 19 Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of יהוה, 20 and that He may send יeshu-Messiah, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things [Jubilee Year 120], which Elohim has spoken by the mouth of all His set apart prophets since the world began.

The restoration of all things in Jubilee Year 120 occurs at the moment the seventh millennium begins when will appear to judge the living and the dead as Paul related to Timothy.

2 Timothy 4:1-2 1 I charge you therefore before Elohim and the Master יהושע Messiah, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His [Millennial] Kingdom: 2 Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.

Every prophet of Elohim since the world began has believed the ultimatum which יהוה gave in Genesis 6:3 – that His Spirit will only strive with mortal men for 6000 Spiritual Years or 120 Jubilee Years.

Genesis 6:3 And יהוה said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man through all the ages [The World that Was, Present Age, Age of Desolation, Age of Instruction, Age of the Messiah, Age of Life, The World to Come], for he is mortal; yet his days shall be 120 [Jubilee] Years.”

When 120 Jubilee Years have expired, the children of the Kingdom will receive immortality and the Age of Life, but will send His angels to gather out anything offensive or anyone practicing lawlessness.

Matthew 13:36-41 36 Then sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the Parable of the Tares of the Field.” 37 He answered and said to them: “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the [Millennial] Kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the Age [of the Messiah], and the reapers are the angels. 40 Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the Age [of the Messiah]. 41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness.”

The “Son of Man” is a term which refers to the Messiah’s authority over the angelic realm as the final Judge over His creation. Peter, as a personal disciple of יהושע Messiah, was well trained in the 7000 Year Plan of Elohim. There are several places in his writing in which this is clearly evident.

1 Peter 1:3-5 3 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master יהושע Messiah, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of יהושע Messiah from the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 who are kept by the power of Elohim through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time [after Spiritual Year 6000].

Peter taught that the inheritance of a follower of יהושע Messiah was incorruptible and undefiled. The reward of immortality was reserved in heaven for each individual follower and was kept by faith in יהושע Messiah. Peter taught that salvation and immortality would be revealed in the last time or in the last year.
In some of the last words he ever wrote, Peter reminded the followers of יְהוָה Messiah not to be ignorant of the seven days of creation and corresponding seven millennial days in the 7000 Year Plan of Elohim. This is because he believed that salvation would come in Jubilee Year 120 at the onset of the seventh millennium.

2 Peter 3:1-18
1 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder),
2 that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the set apart prophets, and of the commandment of us, the apostles of the Master and Saviour,
3 knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts,
4 and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.”
5 For this they willfully forget: that by the word of Elohim the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water,
6 by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water.
7 But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of men without Elohim.
8 But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with יְהוָה one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
9 For this they willfully forget: that by the word of Elohim the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water,
10 by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water.
11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in set apart conduct and piety,
12 looking for and hastening the coming of the Day of Elohim, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?
13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.
14 Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless;
15 and consider that the longsuffering of our Master is salvation – as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you,
16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.
17 You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked;
18 but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Master and Saviour יְהוָה Messiah. To Him be the brilliance and majesty both now and through all the ages [The World that Was, Present Age, Age of Desolation, Age of Instruction, Age of the Messiah, Age of Life, The World to Come]. So be it.

In Matthew 16:1-4 מִשְׁמַרְשָׁם Messiah criticized people in His day who could not discern the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:1-4
1 Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said to them, “When it is evening you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,’
3 and in the morning, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.’
4 Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times.”
5 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.” And He left them and departed.

The disciples of מִשְׁמַרְשָׁם Messiah living today would do well to learn to discern the signs of the times. As מִשְׁמַרְשָׁם Messiah will soon be established in His Millennial Kingdom, the wise must be sober and vigilant.
Daniel 2:44-45  "And in the days of these kings the Elaah of heaven will set up a [Millennial] Kingdom which shall never be destroyed [it will continue into eternity in The World to Come]; and the [Millennial] Kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms [at the end of the Age of the Messiah], and it shall stand throughout the Age [of Life]. 45 Inasmuch as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold – the great Elaah has made known to the king what will come to pass after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure.”

1 Peter 5:8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

In summary, ירושה Messiah was born after sunset as Yom Teruah began on Yom Ham-i-shi [the fifth day of the week] on New Moon 7 on Yom Teruah in 3 B.C.E. at the end of the Age of Instruction on the Creation Calendar.

The Messiah is called the Branch (ץメッセך) in Isaiah 4:1-6, Jeremiah 23:5-6, Zechariah 3:7-8 and 6:12-13 and the Branch (ץ몬ך) is represented by Tsemech, the brightest star in the constellation Bethulah / Virgo. Tsemech set below the horizon or came to earth at around 6:12 P.M. on Wednesday, September 11, 3 B.C.E. on the proleptic Julian Calendar signifying that the Messiah came to earth around this time.

ירושה Messiah officially began His ministry when He began to be about 30 years old at the beginning of the Age of the Messiah on the Creation Calendar. According to Luke 4:16-30, it was on this day that He read from Isaiah 61:1-2. Daniel prophesied in Daniel 9:27 that the Messiah would confirm the covenant with many for one week, and that in the midst of the week He would bring an end to sacrifice and offering. The Messiah did this on the day He was crucified on the Passover in the midst of one seven day week.

Daniel 9:26-27A 26 And after the sixty-two sevens [62 Shemittah Cycles], Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the [Roman] people of the prince who is to come [Titus] shall destroy the city and the sanctuary [at the beginning of the Age of the Messiah]. And the end thereof [of the destruction of the city and the sanctuary in 70 C.E.] shall be with a flood, and to the end of the war [First Judean Revolt of 66-74 C.E.] desolations are determined. 27 And He [ יהושע Messiah the Prince] will confirm the covenant with many [the Abrahamic Covenant] for one seven and in the midst of a seven. He [ יהושע Messiah the Prince] will bring an end to sacrifice and offering [by the sacrifice of Himself].

The Messiah was cut off as prophesied in Daniel 9:26 in the midst of the week as prophesied in Daniel 9:27. He was cut off on Yom Rev-i-i [the fourth day of the week] on Passover on Day 14 / Month 1 on the Creation Calendar, or Wednesday, March 24, 34 C.E. on the proleptic Julian Calendar. Then conquered death and rose from the grave before sunrise on Sha-bat [the seventh day of the week] on the 1st Sabbath on Day 17 / Month 1 on the Creation Calendar, or Sabbath, March 27, 34 C.E. on the proleptic Julian Calendar.

ירושה Messiah confirmed the covenant made with Abraham that all the nations of the earth would be blessed from Abraham’s seed when He conquered death at the execution stake. When He offered His life to take away the sin of the world, יהושע who was of the seed of Abraham made a way for those from all the nations of the earth who believe Him, to obtain immortality in the Age of Life. The self sacrifice of יהושע Messiah also brought an end to sacrifice and offering at the Second Temple in Jerusalem.
יהושע ascended into heaven after being seen 40 days according to Acts 1:3 on Yom Rev-i-i [the fourth day of the week] on Day 27 / Month 2 on the Creation Calendar, or Wednesday, May 5, 34 C.E. on the proleptic Julian Calendar. According to the prophecy in Acts 3:21, the heavens will release יהושע Messiah at the times of the restoration of all things – a veiled reference to the seventh millennium and Jubilee Year 120.

Acts 3:19-21 Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of יהוה, and that He may send יהושע Messiah, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which Elohim has spoken by the mouth of all His set apart prophets since the world began.

Peter said that every prophet since the world began knew that Elohim would only strive with mortal men for 120 Jubilee Years. After 6000 Spiritual Years have expired, those who have done good will be granted immortality in the Age of Life. For יהוה Himself made this known in the time of Noah according to Genesis 6:3.

Genesis 6:3 And יהוה said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man through all the ages [Present Age, Age of Desolation, Age of Instruction, Age of the Messiah, Age of Life, World to Come], for he is mortal, but his days shall be one hundred and twenty [Jubilee] years.”

Those who are faithful and watching can expect the coming of the Son of Man some time in Jubilee Year 120. The sign of Revelation 12:1-2 is a great sign in heaven because it indicates with precision the exact time that יהושע Messiah was born. It is also a great sign because it inspires followers of יהושע Messiah who are alive and remaining today to keep watching for the moment of His prophesied return. Jeremiah spoke well for יהוה – who changes not – when he said:

Jeremiah 29:11 “For I know the thoughts that I am thinking towards you,” declares יהוה, “Thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you what you long for and expect in the end.”
